Virgin Islands Board of Education:
Important Notice for 2024 Financial Aid Applicants

St. Thomas, USVI — The Virgin Islands Board of Education (VIBE) is urging all students who applied for Financial Aid for the 2024 academic year and have not yet received any funding to reach out as soon as possible. If you are an applicant awaiting financial assistance, it is crucial that you contact the VIBE Financial Aid Representatives by October 4, 2024, to address any potential issues with your application.

You can connect with a representative by calling 340-774-4546 (St. Thomas) or 340-772-4144 (St. Croix). Alternatively, you may send an email to financialaid@myviboe.com for further assistance. Timely communication will help ensure that your funding concerns are addressed promptly and that you receive any eligible financial aid without unnecessary delays. The Board of Education is committed to supporting students in pursuing their academic goals and encourages applicants to take action before the specified deadline.
